Main Particulars

Wayside is a small privately owned leisure park in a landscaped, secluded setting with a 12-month holiday license. The park is just three miles from the nearest beaches and half a mile from the historic village of Minster. We are also just a thirty-minute drive from the popular seaside town of Dover where you can also jump aboard a ferry for a day out to Calais.

Rural surroundings make it an ideal location for somewhere to get a relaxing escape. The park is best suited to those who are looking for those quiet getaways.
